Student Statement

By signing where indicated below, you acknowledge that:

- You own a personal copy of the NSS-CDS Student Workbook and have read those sections of the workbook that are applicable to your current level of training.
- You understand the limits of your current level of training and agree to remain within those limits until you gain further training and experience.
- You agree that before diving you will inspect your equipment to verify you have everything you will need, that you know the content of the gas mixes you will use and the limitations of each, and that your equipment is in proper working order.

Instructors: By the end of the course, you will need to create at least two copies of this form, signed by both you and your student. One of these forms is for your records; the other is to be given to the student along with his or her temporary Training Completion card. Although online student registrations are preferred, you can also register students by making a third copy of this signed form and submitting it to the NSS-CDS Business Manager, along with payment.

Instructor Statement

By signing below, I attest to the fact the student whose name appears above has met all NSS-CDS requirements for the level of training indicated. Additionally I authorize the NSS-CDS to issue a Training Completion Card to the student named above (if so indicated) and understand that I must maintain a signed copy of all waiver, medical and student registration forms.
